

Index to Volume IX

SOCIAL EDUCATION is indexed in Education Index

I. Authors and Titles

ANDERSON, VIVIENNE. American Colonists—1945, 366.
ARNESON, BEN A. Trends in the Teaching of Government, 350.
BARTON, WILLIAM B. Management and Labor in the Social Studies Program, 77.
BAUGH, KATHERYNE E. Revising the World History Course, 117.
BOZEMAN, ADDA. An Education for Peace: A Model United Nation's Peace Conference, 359.
BREINAN, ALEXANDER. Some Lessons Drawn from John Dewey, 207.
BUCKWALTER, W. ROY. Labor's Need of a Public Relations Program, 73.
CAMERON, MERIBETH E. Young Americans Must Learn About Asia, 165.
CARRIÉ, RENÉ ALBRECHT. The German Problem Can Be Simple, 355.
CARTER, FLOELLA KELLEY. The Wesley Report on American History: A Classroom Teacher Speaks, 16.
COHN, FANNIA M. Workers' Education and the Social Studies, 157.
COOK, LLOYD ALLEN. What We Face in Family Living, 108.
CORDIER, RALPH W. The Social Studies in Perspective, 29.
DARLING, EDWARD. "The Elephant Is a Spear," 115.
DARLING, EDWARD. Twelve-Year-Olds Can Think Critically, 65.
DEKIEWIET, C. W. The Meaning of Historical Time, 13.
DESTLER, CHESTER McA. The Intolerance of Political Differences in Europe, 247.
DESTLER, CHESTER McA. The Intolerance of Political Differences in the United States, 201.
ENGLISH, W. FRANCIS. Missouri Schools and Missouri's New Constitution, 361.
GRIM, PAUL R. and DUTTON, WILBUR H. Is Safety Education Obvious and Unstimulating? 263.
HAINES, MILLICENT. Taking a Poll to Survey School Opinion, 219.
HAUCK, ARTHUR A. Education and Canadian-United States Relations, 67.
KERRISON, IRVINE. The Case Against Conscription, 26.
KIDGER, HORACE. Social Studies Instruction for the Pre-Inductee, 23.
KOHN, CLYDE F. Thinking Geographically, 252.
LAMONT, CORLISS. The Schools and American-Soviet Understanding, 63.
LATHROP, H. O. The Place of Geography in the Social Studies, 209.
LEAMER, LAURENCE E. The Problem of the Mental Demobilization of the Soldier, 123.
LEEVY, J. ROY. Teaching Sociology in a Changing World, 310.
LIDDELL, GLENDA L. Selling Social Studies Via Radio, 222.
LUCKE, ELMINA R. American Industrial Society: A Core Program, 301.
MERIDETH, DOROTHY. Secondary School Social Studies in 1945, 345.
MONTGOMERY, LOLA. Rural School Teaching—A Re-evaluation, 265.
National Council for the Social Studies Program Twenty-

Fifth Annual Meeting, Facing the Over-all Tasks in Social Education, 315.
NOSOFSKY, WILLIAM. The Law Against Discrimination and the Social Studies, 364.
PERRIGO, LYNN I. The Social Studies Tomorrow, 313.
PHILLIPS, CHARLES E. Study of the United States in Canadian Schools, 71.
PIEPER, EUNICE JEAN. Pan-American Highway: A Fifth Grade Project, 173.
PINGREY, JENNIE L. Introducing a Unit on Labor, 305.
PRICE, ETHEL E. Democratic Living: A School Experience, 60.
QUILLIN, I. JAMES. The Role of the Social Studies Teacher in the Postwar World, 9.
RENNER, GEORGE T. Man and Soils in America, 152.
REX, MILLICENT B. The Use of the Quotation Question in History, 215.
RUTAN, EDWARD J. Exploring the Language of Social Studies, 213.
SCHUELKE, HERBERT T. Soviet Russia: A Curriculum Unit, 113.
SILVER, ABBA HILLEL. The Moral and Psychological Basis of a Lasting Peace, 55.
STALEY, EUGENE. Economic Welfare in the Postwar World, 197.
STEVENS, BEATRICE. An International Club, 259.
STEVENS, GRACE ADAMS. Foods for the World from the Americas, 20.
STRAYER, JOSEPH R. What Is Medieval History? 295.
TAYLOR, EUGENE J. The AAF Convalescent Training Program as Social Education, 125.
TOBEY, DONALD R. The Army Separation Center, 255.
WALLACE, ELIZABETH. The Pennsylvania Federation of Junior Historians, 161.
WEIER, LEONA. Study of Latin America in High School History Courses, 307.
WEINTRAUB, RUTH G. and TOUGH, ROSALIND. The Veteran Comes Back to Hometown, 32.
WILLIAMS, JAY and ABRAHAM, HERBERT J. Evaluating the Course in Problems of Democracy, 167.
WILLIS, MARGARET. When the Veteran Returns to High School, 299.

II. Editorials

HUNT, Erling M. The National Council at Cleveland, 5.
Canadian-American Education, 53. School History, 149.
Waging Peace, 245. International Education, 293.
Social Education for Veterans. Backgrounds and Issues, Robert H. Reid; G. I. Joe Speaks, Robert LaFollettes A College Administrator Speaks, Marshall R. Beard, 103.
Van Til, William. The Task of Intercultural Education, 341.

III. Departments

Notes and News, 35, 80, 128, 176, 225, 267, 317, 368.
Pamphlets and Government Publications. Leonard B. Irwin, 39, 84, 131, 179, 227, 271, 320, 371.
Sight and Sound in Social Studies. William H. Hartley, 41, 86, 133, 181, 229, 273, 322, 373.

Index to Volume IX

SOCIAL EDUCATION is indexed in Education Index

I. Authors and Titles

ANDERSON, VIVIENNE. American Colonists—1945, 366.
ARNESON, BEN A. Trends in the Teaching of Government, 350.
BARTON, WILLIAM B. Management and Labor in the Social Studies Program, 77.
BAUGH, KATHERYNE E. Revising the World History Course, 117.
BOZEMAN, ADDA. An Education for Peace: A Model United Nation's Peace Conference, 359.
BREINAN, ALEXANDER. Some Lessons Drawn from John Dewey, 207.
BUCKWALTER, W. ROY. Labor's Need of a Public Relations Program, 73.
CAMERON, MERIBETH E. Young Americans Must Learn About Asia, 165.
CARRIÉ, RENÉ ALBRECHT. The German Problem Can Be Simple, 355.
CARTER, FLOELLA KELLEY. The Wesley Report on American History: A Classroom Teacher Speaks, 16.
COHN, FANNIA M. Workers' Education and the Social Studies, 157.
COOK, LLOYD ALLEN. What We Face in Family Living, 108.
CORDIER, RALPH W. The Social Studies in Perspective, 29.
DARLING, EDWARD. "The Elephant Is a Spear," 115.
DARLING, EDWARD. Twelve-Year-Olds Can Think Critically, 65.
DEKIEWIET, C. W. The Meaning of Historical Time, 13.
DESTLER, CHESTER McA. The Intolerance of Political Differences in Europe, 247.
DESTLER, CHESTER McA. The Intolerance of Political Differences in the United States, 201.
ENGLISH, W. FRANCIS. Missouri Schools and Missouri's New Constitution, 361.
GRIM, PAUL R. and DUTTON, WILBUR H. Is Safety Education Obvious and Unstimulating? 263.
HAINES, MILLICENT. Taking a Poll to Survey School Opinion, 219.
HAUCK, ARTHUR A. Education and Canadian-United States Relations, 67.
KERRISON, IRVINE. The Case Against Conscription, 26.
KIDGER, HORACE. Social Studies Instruction for the Pre-Inductee, 23.
KOHN, CLYDE F. Thinking Geographically, 252.
LAMONT, CORLISS. The Schools and American-Soviet Understanding, 63.
LATHROP, H. O. The Place of Geography in the Social Studies, 209.
LEAMER, LAURENCE E. The Problem of the Mental Demobilization of the Soldier, 123.
LEEVY, J. ROY. Teaching Sociology in a Changing World, 310.
LIDDELL, GLENDA L. Selling Social Studies Via Radio, 222.
LUCKE, ELMINA R. American Industrial Society: A Core Program, 301.
MERIDETH, DOROTHY. Secondary School Social Studies in 1945, 345.
MONTGOMERY, LOLA. Rural School Teaching—A Re-evaluation, 265.
National Council for the Social Studies Program Twenty-

Fifth Annual Meeting, Facing the Over-all Tasks in Social Education, 315.
NOSOFSKY, WILLIAM. The Law Against Discrimination and the Social Studies, 364.
PERRIGO, LYNN I. The Social Studies Tomorrow, 313.
PHILLIPS, CHARLES E. Study of the United States in Canadian Schools, 71.
PIEPER, EUNICE JEAN. Pan-American Highway: A Fifth Grade Project, 173.
PINGREY, JENNIE L. Introducing a Unit on Labor, 305.
PRICE, ETHEL E. Democratic Living: A School Experience, 60.
QUILLIN, I. JAMES. The Role of the Social Studies Teacher in the Postwar World, 9.
RENNER, GEORGE T. Man and Soils in America, 152.
REX, MILLICENT B. The Use of the Quotation Question in History, 215.
RUTAN, EDWARD J. Exploring the Language of Social Studies, 213.
SCHUELKE, HERBERT T. Soviet Russia: A Curriculum Unit, 113.
SILVER, ABBA HILLEL. The Moral and Psychological Basis of a Lasting Peace, 55.
STALEY, EUGENE. Economic Welfare in the Postwar World, 197.
STEVENS, BEATRICE. An International Club, 259.
STEVENS, GRACE ADAMS. Foods for the World from the Americas, 20.
STRAYER, JOSEPH R. What Is Medieval History? 295.
TAYLOR, EUGENE J. The AAF Convalescent Training Program as Social Education, 125.
TOBEY, DONALD R. The Army Separation Center, 255.
WALLACE, ELIZABETH. The Pennsylvania Federation of Junior Historians, 161.
WEIER, LEONA. Study of Latin America in High School History Courses, 307.
WEINTRAUB, RUTH G. and TOUGH, ROSALIND. The Veteran Comes Back to Hometown, 32.
WILLIAMS, JAY and ABRAHAM, HERBERT J. Evaluating the Course in Problems of Democracy, 167.
WILLIS, MARGARET. When the Veteran Returns to High School, 299.

II. Editorials

Hunt, Erling M. The National Council at Cleveland, 5.
Canadian-American Education, 53. School History, 149.
Waging Peace, 245. International Education, 293.
Social Education for Veterans. Backgrounds and Issues, Robert H. Reid; G. I. Joe Speaks, Robert LaFollettes A College Administrator Speaks, Marshall R. Beard, 103.
Van Til, William. The Task of Intercultural Education, 341.

III. Departments

Notes and News, 35, 80, 128, 176, 225, 267, 317, 368.
Pamphlets and Government Publications. Leonard B. Irwin, 39, 84, 131, 179, 227, 271, 320, 371.
Sight and Sound in Social Studies. William H. Hartley, 41, 86, 133, 181, 229, 273, 322, 373.

ks in n and 3.
Cana-
Fifth
og.
ience,
eacher
2.
estion
Social Unit,
Basis
World,
m the 5.
g Pro-55-on of School
eteran ng the High and, 5.
y, 149.
. Issues,
olleter,
Beard,
cation.
3.
ard B.
Hartley,